About the Juror:

Jeff Gauntt was born in 1967 in Pasadena, Texas, where he grew up and received his BFA in painting from The University of Houston in 1992. In 1993 he moved to Brooklyn, New York where he resided through 2007. Upon moving there, he began working towards his MFA in painting at Pratt Institute until 1996, which was later completed in 2007.

In 1999 he received the Louis Comfort Tiffany Foundation award, and in 2000 his work was included in the first Greater New York exhibition at PS1. Beginning in 2000, his work was represented by Sikkema Jenkins & Co., New York, wherein he had his first solo exhibition in 2001. Since that time, Jeff has had two additional exhibitions with them. In 2005 his paintings, along with an installation, were included in Painting the Edge, a survey of contemporary painting at Gallery Hyundai in Seoul Korea. In 2006, Jeff's paintings and an installation were featured in the group exhibition, Still Missing: Beauty Absent Social Life, at the Visual Arts Museum in New York. During the same year, he also had his first solo exhibition at Inman Gallery in Houston, TX, which incorporated the gallery's architectural space into a large-scale installation, which including paintings, drawings, sculptural elements and video. In the autumn of 2007, Jeff was the Artist in Residence at the University of Tennessee in Knoxville, where he installed another large-scale installation for the Artist-In-Residence Biennial Exhibition at Ewing Gallery. In late 2008, Jeff moved to Los Angeles where he has been balancing his time completing an ambitious new body of work, along with teaching art classes. In 2009, Jeff was awarded the Pollock-Krasner Foundation Grant.

Jeff's work has been positively reviewed by Roberta Smith, of The New York Times, Jerry Saltz, of New York Magazine, and Andrea Scott, of The New Yorker, amongst others. His work is included in the permanent collection of the Chambers Hotel, The Progressive Art Collection, and various private collections.
